

LC'S DIGITAL FUTURE & YOU!

a series of briefings sponsored by Library Services on digital initiatives

Global World Library in the Digital Age: Potentials & Challenges in the Case of Global Memory Net

Presented by:

Dr. Ching-Chih Chen
Professor, Graduate School of Library &
Information Science, Simmons College,
Boston, MA

Dr. Chen is a sought after international consultant and speaker in over 40 countries. She has been advocating the global digital library concept by linking libraries, museums and archives all over the world, and this Global Digital Library Initiative has helped the development of digital libraries in numerous countries. She has been advocating the need for international consortium in making cultural and heritage digital content accessible to users. Global Memory Net, extended from Chinese Memory Net, is a project of the National Science Foundation's International Digital Library Program."

Monday, July 19, 2004
1:30-2:30 p.m.
Dining Room A
6th floor, James Madison Building

Request ADA accommodations five business days in advance at (202) 707-6362
(voice/TTY) or email ADA@loc.gov.